"Blondin's Big Show."

"The Cowboy, Indian and the Lady," this powerful comedy drama of life in the southwest, has made a remarkable appeal to the show goers. It touches with force the romantic spirit inherent in everyone. Its story is true to the heart and nature. Its characters are strikingly well drawn and cleverly contrasted and the entire performance teems with fascinating dash from start to finish. It is so real in the personalities who tell the story of The Cowboy, Indian and the Lady that one is translated and for a time becomes actually a participant in these stirring events of the play. The peculiar building of the play is a distinct novelty. All the scenes are laid to make the story real. Saturday, Jan. 21.

Man's Privilege to Be a Partaker of God's Nature.

Sermon by Rev. S. M. White in the Hondo Baptist Church Sunday evening, January 15, 1911.

We all like to be connected with Royalty. If any person has become noted and honorable, we like to claim relationship. If our father's side of the house is noted for some noble quality, we rather like to resemble the ancestor who was the possessor of that quality of features or disposition. If we have faith and will claim our heritage, we have closer and a greater relationship with God than with our parents. We look like our parents in physical qualities, but if we own and claim God as father, our soul qualities are to be like His.

Peter, who was qualified from experience to give instruction about Christian living, opens the door into the largest promise of any Bible writer. Hear what he says in his Second Epistle and the fourth verse: "Whereby, He hath granted unto us, His precious and exceeding great promises; that through these, ye may become partakers of His Divine Nature." Human nature is our weakness. If human nature can be supplanted by the Divine nature then there is a hope of man. This Peter says, in the preceding verses is begun in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord, for by God's power, He has granted unto us all things that pertain to life and godliness. Now as the text says: "Whereby," (that is, these things before mentioned pertaining to God and Christ) "through these precious exceeding great promises we may become partakers of His divine nature." Gracious gift! Who would not exchange ten cents for ten dollars? Who would not exchange poverty for riches? Who would not give a weak fallen nature, for God's pure, powerful and loving nature?

Let us think for a few moments about God's nature. What is it? Can we understand it in some small measure? Jesus told the Samaritan woman, who was a poor outcast, but an anxious inquirer, that "God is Spirit." We can tell something about what this meant, from the life of Christ. Christ was all the while trying to express God's nature in good work and kind loving deeds. He was known as Teacher. He taught as one having authority. God was the Holy Spirit in Christ, revealing Himself to the world. The nature of the Spirit is to reveal, to teach and to bless. Is it the nature of the spirit of man to express himself in his work? The architect expresses or reveals his spirit in the house, the musician in his music. If man can be God willed, by being partakers of God's nature, then his work will be a thousand-fold greater, for he will give God the glory and try to honestly express God's Spirit.

Christ says also in John's Gospel, "I am truth" as God's representative, as God's Son. If we partake of truth we partake of the nature of God. There is no falsity in God. He is true. Sin is just the opposite. Sin is false. It is deceitful. It is destructive to the soul of man.

Again John tells us that Jesus was the Light of the world. Light is a divine word. It is permeating. Always dispelling darkness, always bringing joy, life and happiness to all. That was what Jesus did as He expressed God's nature. That is what we will do if we partake of God's nature.

Also he tells us that God is Love. The nature and impulse of love is to give itself. How untainted the mother gives out her love. If we partake of God's love we will seek the good of all we know. "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy soul, with all thy heart, with all thy mind and with all thy strength and thy neighbor as thyself." To do this we must be "partakers of the Divine Nature; God's Nature."

He has made us to be this. He has given us the privilege of exchanging our old sinful man nature for His Divine Nature. This we obtain through faith in the "Precious, Exceeding, Great Promises of God in Christ Jesus." Then follows Peter's golden Stairway: "Adding on your part all diligence in your faith supply virtue; and in your virtue knowledge; and in your knowledge self-control; and in your self-control patience; and in your patience godliness; and in your godliness brotherly kindness; and in your brotherly kindness love."

This is known as the greatest climax in literature. This is the way to God. This is the way to be a partaker of the Divine Nature. It is the cure for all private, social and political sin. Come and be a partaker of His Divine nature. "Do it now."

COMPENSATION

Compensation is the term applied to the methods used to secure a uniformity of time in the varying temperatures to which a watch is exposed. The cause of the error is the expansions and contractions of metals. The South Bend Balance wheel is made of two metals of unequal expansion, so proportioned, one to the other, that the expansion and contraction is neutralized perfectly. A South Bend Watch keeps time in all temperatures, as well as in all positions.

A Handsome Woman

Every woman may not be handsome, but every woman should keep with care the good points nature has given her. No woman need have sallow skin, dull eye, blotchy complexion, who pays proper attention to her health. Where constipation, liver derangements, blood impurities and other irregularities exist, good complexion, bright eyes and sprightly movements cannot exist. Internal derangements reveal themselves sooner or later on the surface. Headache, dark rings around the eyes, sallow skin, a constant tired feeling—mean that the liver and digestive organs are needing help and correction. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets give this necessary help. They work in nature's own way. They do not merely flush the bowels but tone up the liver and stomach to fulfill their proper functions. So mild and gentle do they act that one hardly realizes that they have taken medicine. Chamberlain's Tablets can be relied upon to relieve biliousness, indigestion, constipation and dizziness. Sold everywhere. Price 25 cents.

"At last, I began to take Cardui. I have taken only three bottles, but it has done me more good than all the doctors or than any other medicine I ever took."

Take CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

For the after-effects of any serious illness, like the Grip, Cardui is the best tonic you can use.
It builds strength, steadies the nerves, improves the appetite, regulates irregularities and helps bring back the natural glow of health.
Cardui is your best friend, if you only knew it.
Think of the thousands of ladies whom Cardui has helped! What could possibly prevent it from helping you?
Remember you cannot get the benefit of the Cardui ingredients in any other medicine, for they are not for sale in any drug store except in the Cardui bottle. Try Cardui.

BEER

WHO CAN BEAT IT?

SAN ANTONIO BREWING ASSN.

Pick-Ups.

From The Auditorium Herald.
Just keep up a smile
Only for a while
And I'm a prevaricator
Or a laugh will sure come later
All care to beguile!

Have you read the ads?
Beauty sometimes atones for much bum acting!

The immoral man can always find immorality on the stage.

The clothes are no impediment to the good looks of some stage beauties!

Only those who are "taken in" have a right in the first place—"to knock!"

A man's idea of martyrdom is to accompany his mother-in-law to the show.

Patronize those advertisers who patronize The Auditorium Herald and we'll all be happy.

Some people don't like to look at stage villainy—it's so much like introspection, you know!

The next attraction at the Auditorium will be Harry Green presenting Eli and Jane February 1st.

A thing may be funny in spite of being vulgar but it is never funny because it is vulgar!

When tempted to make a show of your prejudice go look in a mirror—and then you won't!

The man who refuses to look at that that he does not approve could save himself much useless eyewinking by having his optics put out.

There was an old maid caught a beau
And he carried her to the show,
But she said it was bum
She'd rather staid to hum—
And talked to him alone, you know!

Saves Two Lives.

"Neither my sister nor myself might be living to-day, if it had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery," writes A.
D. McDonald of Fayetteville, N. C.
R. F. D. No. 8, "for we both had frightful coughs that no other remedy could help. We were told that my sister had consumption. She was very weak and had night sweats but your wonderful medicine completely cured us both. It's the best I ever used or heard of."
For sore lungs, coughs, colds, hemorrhage, lagrippe, asthma, hay fever, croup, whooping cough,—all bronchial troubles,—its supreme. Trial bottle free. 50c. and $1.00. Guaranteed by W. H. Windrow.

Officers Elected.

The following officers were elected for this year by the Baptist W. M. U. and Ladies' Aid.
Mrs. S. M. White, President.
Miss Fannie Carle, 1st Vice President.
Mrs. Will Earnest, 2nd Vice President.
Mrs. Laura A. Wanshaff, Secretary.
Mrs. J. B. Morgan, Assistant Secretary.
Mrs. Geo. Carle, Treasurer.
Business meetings will be at the church
the first Thursday of every month and Missionary meetings will be the last Thursday of every month at church.
The meetings between the above meetings will be at members' homes.

A Good Show.

Blondin's big show in the new comedy drama, "The Cowboy, Indian and the Lady". The best of all under-canvas shows. Band parade at 1:00
p. m. Saturday, Jan. 21, 1911.

"Alpenzug" Revived.

After five years, Interlaken has revived its "Alpenzug," a curious and pretty spring festival. It is the procession of the cattle, with their herds-men, from the low-lying meadows, where they have passed the long winter, to the Alpen, where they will have their summer quarters. "Alps" is used here in the local Swiss sense as meaning a high mountain meadow, not a mountain peak.

The Best He Could Do.

Noble Sportsman—Whatever it is I've shot, it makes a most unearthly row.
Keeper—Yes; poor Bill ain't got a musical voice, 'as'e? But I heard him say he was going to take singing lesson.

Where It Never Freezes.

Only a small portion of the United States, the southern tip of Florida, never has experienced freezing weather.

Shining Buttons Abolished.

Gleaming buttons for service uniforms were abolished by Uncle Sam years ago, because they made the soldiers fatally conspicuous on the field of battle. Instead of hooks and eyes as the worthy peace advocate suggested, their garments are united by dull black buttons.

Young Barbarians at Play.

Father—"Why are you moping about the house in this trying manner? Why don't you go out and play with Harry Higgins?" Son—"Because I played with Harry Higgins yesterday, and I don't suppose he's well enough yet."—Harper's Weekly.

Because It Had Wings.

Little Ben's father caught a bat in the barn and brought it in to show to his small son, asking him what he thought it was. "Oh, papa!" said little Ben, "it's an angel mouse!"—
The Delineator.

Following some summer-like weather a northeaster blew up Wednesday and raw, drizzly weather has prevailed since. A good rain is very much needed, especially for the oat crop.
We are indebted to Rev. M. L. Darby, the pastor of the local Methodist church, for our report of the Missionary Institute this week, as well as for the program of the same which appeared in our last issue.
A. M. Christilles was in town Monday from Castroville. We are informed that Mr. Christilles has sold out his business in Castroville and that the former firm of Mangold & Christilles is now Mangold & Son.
W. F. Miller was called home the first of the week on account of the serious illness of his mother. We regret to have to report that there is very little hope of the venerable lady's recovery as she is quite elderly and has been ill for several months.
J. G. Heyen, the hustling real estate man, is talking up a commercial club for Hondo. This is an organization which Hondo has long stood in need of, and we hope he can bring it to a successful consummation. Get into touch with him, if you are enterprising, and help him to boost.
W. F. Miller, who came home the first of the week from Yorktown, reports work progressing well on the Yorktown School Building, under the direction of Messrs. Hurt & Jones, but says it will take about two months longer to complete the job. He does not know when he will return to the work.
Gilmer Brown and his opera troupe presented David Garrick in a highly creditable manner at the Auditorium Tuesday night. Owing to the Missionary Institute in session at the Methodist church, and other attractions in town, the audience was very small and those who failed to attend missed a treat.
W. M. Shelton of Sherman, but at present superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League work for the San Antonio district, spoke at the Auditorium Sunday afternoon. We did not hear Mr. Shelton's speech, but understand that it contained too many facts and not enough fire to suit some of his auditors.
J. G. Heyen, Holloway Bros., King & Hudspeth and Hondo Lumber Co. have each agreed to donate enough paint to paint one side respectively of Hondo's new fire house, and Messrs. Grimsinger & Grell, J. W. Whipple, Ed Ney and Emmitt de Montel have agreed to do the painting, so the fire house will soon be transformed into "a thing of beauty."

C. W. Roberts, the hustling automobile agent, informs us that he has sold twenty-eight cars, eight of which, seven Hudsons and one Chadwick, he has sold to Medina county parties. J. S. Monkhouse bought the Chadwick and was out from San Antonio in it Sunday. The latest to purchase a Hudson was Alex Boehme, the Riomedina merchant and postmaster.
Did you ever sit on a mossy bank and look at the sun-kissed brook as it merrily dances in glee around the protruding pebbles and feel glad that you were alive? Well, that is the same sensation that you experience when you go to see "Eli and Jane," the clever show that is to be here February 1st, a laughing, bubbling pure heart and home story. When the curtain drops on the last act you feel as though you had been refreshed by a drink of good cool spring water. Harry Green in the title role is enough to insure a good performance.

The pretty play of "Eli and Jane" teems with quips of human nature and one is brought very close to humanity without its civilized frill, without its vices. The sentiments are pure, clean and wholesome, with a constant reminder of your boy and girlhood days that brings just a suspicion of moisture to the eyes at times. Remember the date and be one of the happy throng to see "Eli and Jane" at the Auditorium Feb. 1st.

The Uvalde District Missionary Institute.

The Missionary Institute of the Uvalde District convened Monday evening at the Methodist church of this city, the aim and spirit of the institute having been stated by Rev. R. A. Rowland, Rev. Thomas Gregory preached the opening sermon. Rev. Gregory is a preacher of ability and set the spirit of the institute at the high water mark.

Every preacher, and quite a few laymen, in the district were represented in the elaborate program, and every one had evidently made preparation, therefore the information given proved a great inspiration. It was an institute in the true sense of the word, and all who attended felt that they had much added unto them in the way of information concerning the mission field, its needs and our power to meet them.

It would be impossible to give even an outline of the two days' hard work, but a few of the most important visible results may be mentioned:

The institute moved to place a missionary in the district whose work is to that of an evangelist, organizer, etc. is to operate only in places within the district unoccupied by the church, and his salary is guaranteed by the members of the district, some making a large individual subscription as Rev. W. W. Nunn was appointed the presiding elder, Rev. S. B. Beall, this responsible position.

Missionary institutes are to be held the various pastoral charges within the district, the purpose being to reproduce the institute and thus inform and those the Methodist congregations on the subject of missions.

Rev. S. B. Beall presided and the business moved like clock work.

The visiting brethren all express themselves as pleased with the progressive city of Hondo and grateful for many courtesies and cordial hospitality of its people.

Those in attendance from elsewhere were:

Rev. S. B. Beall, P. E. Uvalde District.

Rev. R. A. Rowland, Sabinal.

It Grows Hair

Here Are Facts We Want You to Prove at Our Risk

Marvelous as it may seem, Rexall "93" Hair Tonic has grown hair on heads that were once bald. Of course, in none of these cases were the hair roots dead, nor had the scalp taken on a glazed, shiny appearance.
